DOWN THE ROAD

Goin' to keep on going down the road, goin' to hold my head up high, Goin' to follow where the pathway leads 'till it reaches to the sky. Goin' to face each joy and sorrow that I chance to meet along the way, Goin' to travel out my future day by day.

For I know the One who made the road is aware of where it goes, so I follow with my head held high ev'ry by way that He chose, And if I should meet another at the turning of the bend, then the way will go much better with a friend.

Oh I keep on goin' though I don't know what's ahead of me at the coming of the dawn, But I welcome each tomorrow, and I keep a-moving on, For my cup is full of promise and my head is full of dreams, And I know the sun is shining, Though the clouds may try to hide its beams.

So I just keep going, keep on traveling hold my head up high, and I follow the path 'till it reaches the sky, But I hope that where I travel, they will say of me one day that it somehow made a diff'rence that I passed this way.

In grateful appreciation to Mr. W. E. Scott . . .

Mr. Scott has seen education from many viewpoints here in Marked Tree School. He has served as a classroom teacher, elementary principal, and high school administrative assistant. In every position, he has discharged his duty with a smile and has been a friend to students and faculty.

Not only has he served his school well, but has also been active in the civic and business community.

Our wish for him is the traditional Indian Farewell:

Until we meet again, may the Great Spirit make sunrise in your heart, and may your moccasins make tracks in many snows yet to come.

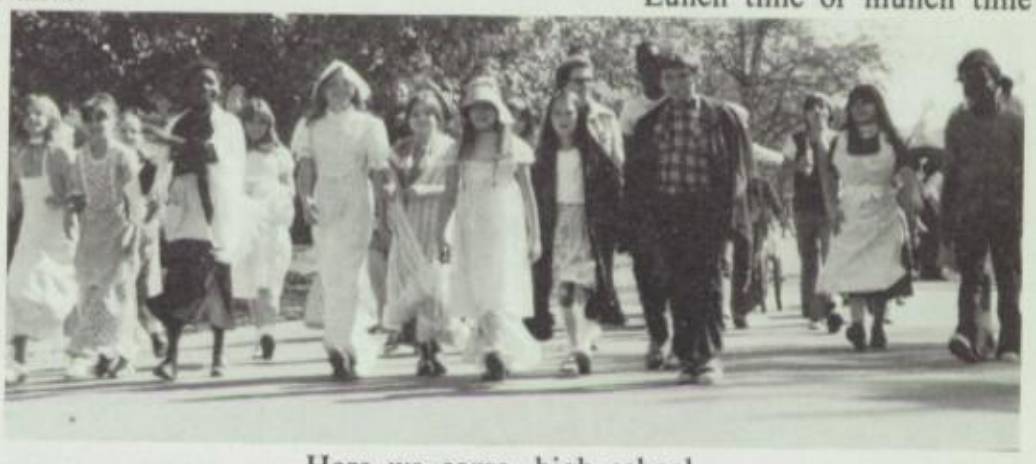
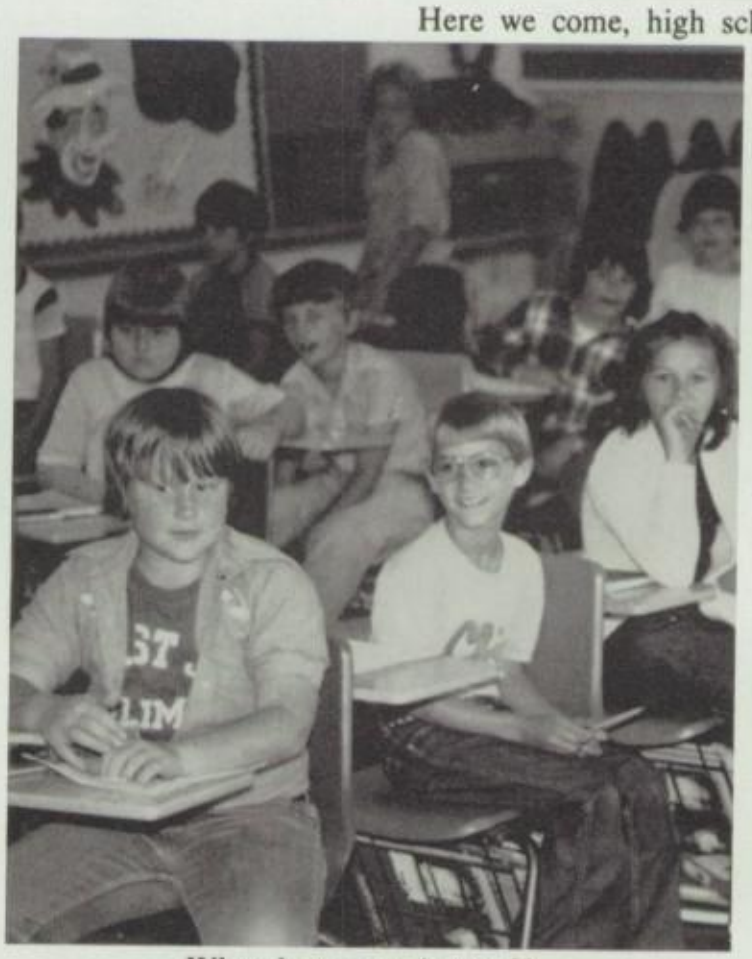
This is a stick up. Up with your hands:

Lunch time or munch time?

A scene from the Christmas play.



Here we come, high school.



What have you learned?

Smile, Tracy.

One happy teacher!

Now school can't be that bad, girls.

What are you studying?

Two old-fashioned girls.

Friends . . . Forever!

Working hard?

WE'RE NUMBER ONE!

Getting ready for the trip.

Clap those hands, girls.

By chance, are you going to Oregon?

As the editor of the 1980 Annual Staff it is my sincere hope that each and every person in Marked Tree High School will find in this book his or her memories of the 1979-80 school year. It was truly a wonderful year and I hope our staff has adequately expressed it. Each person on our staff has worked very hard and I would like to extend my appreciation for all the help and support of these people. Without them this annual would not have been possible. My special thanks to Mr. E. L. Rogers for the time spent on the lovely pictures he's done for us. We appreciate it very much.

I leave with you the memories of the 1979-80 school year and my good wishes for the best 1980-81 school year possible. Good luck, Juniors!
